CAVEATS AGAINST TWO WILLS.

Undue Influence and Doubt as to Mental Condition Alleged.

John P. Doherty yesterday filed a caveat to the will of Annie E. Doherty. He states that he is a brother of the deceased, and that his interests will be mareased, and that his interests will be materially injured if the "alleged or pretended will and codicil" of his sister are admitted to probate. The caveator further states that at the time of the making and execution of the documents in question, his sister, Annie H. Doherty, was not of sound aimd.

Emily E. Steibling, Mary M. Rabe, Susin D. Barrett, Margaret Bohn, and William L. Rabe, who state that they are heirs at law of the late Henry Rabe, also filed a caveat against the probating of the will of the latter. They allege that Henry Rabe was not of sound mind at the time of the making of the will and that its execution was induced by fraud by persons unknown to the caveators. They also ask that the letters testamentary issued to Mary M. Rabe, he revoked, and issues framed for contest.

P.oximity of Sea Girt Rifle Matches Arouses Interest.

Three Annual Meetings to Be Held Simultaneously at the New Jersey Range-International Competitions -Three Prizes by French Societies

agerly to the Sea Girt, N. J., rifle meet, which is to be held from August 30 to sptember 7, and are hard at work per feeting themselves on the Ordway range for the strenuous competition in which they will participate there against the crack shots of the country. The meet will be the twenty-ninth annual meeting of the National Rifle Association of Amer-ica, the second annual meeting of the United States Revolver Association, and the tenth annual meeting of the New Jersey State Rifle Association. It will be held under the auspices of the last-named associat on.

At the same time, there will be held two international contests, the first in twenty-three years. One of the contests See yards of Plaid, Twilled, and Honey is for the Palma trophy, representing the world's championship. This trophy has not been contested for since 1880, when the American team won it by defeating a team from Great Britain. This year Canada is sending a team to try and take it across the border. The other match is a special challenge match between teams of eight men from the Ulster Rifle Asso iation, of Belfast, Ireland, and the New Jersey State Rifle Association—diffeen shots for each man at 800, 900, and 1,000 yards, with any rifle. The Irish team sails for America on the 21st inst. In the party will be, besides the team, the Marquis of Dufferin and six or eight prominent Irish sportsmen, besides several indies. Composing the Irish team are men who have been shooting on the Irish "eight" at Bisley for years. Such men as Barnett, Braithwaite, Henry, Caldwell, Millner, Thynne, Morgan, and Chadwick, whose names are well known in the rifle-shooting world as expert longrange shots, are the material which the young, inexperienced shooters of the New Jersey Association have against them. Not only are the Jersey men new at this game, but they are also seriously handicapped by not having the proper kind of small calibre rifles for such shooting. Mr. Foulke, the well-known shot of Philadelphis, is coaching the New Jersey team, and he predicts that Yankee ingenuity and pluck will pull them through victors. Of the men who have been doing the best work on the New Jersey team are Cap-tain Whittemore, Dr. Hudson, Captain Martin, Baker, Malcolm, Tuttle, and Foulke. New Jersoy will take good care of the visitors. Colonel Thompson, aidede-camp to the Governor, has placed his steam yacht at the disposal of the Entertainment Committee, and the Irish team will be met down the bay and taken to Atlantic Highlands, where they will be taken abourd the train for Sea Girt.

All of the interest in the coming tourthe international matches. Never before in the history of rifle shooting in this country has there been so much interest manifested in the annual interstate matches by the guardsmen of the different States. As against six States being represented by State teams, which is the largest number ever before assembled to ether in competition, there will this year be about eight State teams on the grounds o compete for the Hilton and Marathon rophics. The United States Marine Corps will be represented by a strong team, which has been training at the navy range at Annapolis for over a month, and Department of the East, U. S. Army. will also, in all probability, send a team from Governor's Island. Maine has al-ready selected her team, competitions for that purpose having been held at Bruns-wick, Me., on August 2.

The Pennsylvania State team will be elected from the men making the highest teores at the State shoot at Mount Gretna, Pa., August 27, 28 and 29. Pennsylva na, Pa., August Z, S and S. Pennsylvania will also send the winning regimental team and a squadron team to represent her Guard at Sea Girt. New York has selected by competition twenty-five men, who are now practicing at Creedmoor,
with the United States magazine rifle.
Later on the tweive men to compose the State team will be selected by a second competition. The Empire State will also be represented by regimental teams from the Tweifth, Minth, Seventy-first, Seventh, Seventy-fourth, Twenty-third and Thirteenth tegiments and a team from Squadron A and the Naval Reserve. For some reason, not fully understood, Massachusetts has decided not to send a team
For a great many years Massachusetts could boast of as fine a hody of expert riflemen in her militia as there was in the country, but of late years very little has been heard from her in this respect.
Battery B, Light Artiliery, of Boston, will send a revolver team to defend their title to the military team championship, won last year, There will also be several regimental teams from the State. The Rhode island team is in training at the Rumford range, and is putting up some very line scores.

Both the District of Columbia and New nia will also send the winning regimental

Both the District of Columbia and New Jersey will enter State teams and the usual number of regimental, troop and company teams. The New Jersey Naval Reserve and Batteries and Signal Corps will this year, for the first time, be represented in the matches. The revolver team will also be entered from the Fourth Regiment. Both the District and Jersey teams are shooting with the United States magazine rille, and are doing such good work that both ought to be near the top of the list when the match is decided. Maryland will be represented by a team from the Fifth Regiment of Baltimore and a troop team in the carbine and revolver matches.

Vermont, New Hampshire, Ohio, Michi-Vermont, New Hampshire, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota and Delaware will be represented by either a State or regimental team, or both, but little is known of the work being done at the local ranges. At Sea Girt every arm of the service will be represented, and the encampment will be as near a national camp for our armed forces as we are ever likely to have.

armed forces as we are ever likely to have.

Military riflemen are not going to monopolize all the interest at the meating. The Schuetzen shooters are also well looked after. The National Rifle Association of America has in its programme a team match for civilian cluis, and all of the larger clubs will send their best men to try and win the pennant and inter-club championship of the United States. Such well-known clubs as the Massachusetts Rifle Association, Ithliadelphia Rifle Association, New Jersey State Rifle Association, New Jersey State Rifle Association, District of Columbia Rifle Association, Manhattan Rifle and Revolver Association, District of Columbia Rifle Association, Cettler Rifle Chib of New York, Pittsburg Rifle Club, Crescent City Rifle Club, of Scranton, Pa.; Iroquois Rifle Club, of Pittsburg, Pa.; Hobotic Schot, of Brooklyn, San Antonio (Tex.) Shooting Society, Syracuse (N. Y.) Rifle Club, and the Italian Shooting Association, of New York, will be represented. The success of the Schuctzen shooting end of the tournament is assured by having such men as William Hayes, Gus Zimmerman, Tom Keller, Emil Berckmann, Dr. Hudson, Nathan Spering, Dr. Stiffman, John T. Humphries, and Harry Pope looking after its interest.

Revolver shooting enthusiasts will have their interests well looked after by Dr. Sayre, of New York; Lieutenant Paine and E. E. Partridge, of Boston; E. L. Harpham, of Chicago, and J. B. Crabtree, of Springfield, Mass. Everything possible has been done to provide interesting matches. An innovation is a disappearing man target, at which the contestants have only twelve seconds in which to fire their six shots at it. The railroads of the country, recognizing that there will be thousanged of viators strending the tournament, have made special rates to Sea Girt, beginning August 24. The special rate ticket may be purchased in any of the following States: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Marsachusettis, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Eduction, Ohio, Indiana, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohi Military riflemen are not going to her course to San Diego in order to be nearer the scene of the trouble should it be deemed necessary at any time to send a larger ship than the Ranger there. This step is entirely a precautionary one, as the State Department has no further advices from either Venezuela or Colombia as to the situation there. With the Machias on one side and the Ranger on the other side of the isthmus there is little doubt but that the United States will be able to fulfill its treaty obligations and protect American interests.

The State Department is inclined to believe that the trouble is not of a very unusual character and that it will soon be terminated. Revolutions and warfare are a part of the life of the South American countries and it is said by officials at the department that there has scarce been a month within the past twenty years when there has not been fighting of a more or less serious nature in some one or more of the countries of South and Central America.

The opinion prevails that President Castro is to a large extent responsible for the present outbreak, as it is evident that he is endeavoring to assume autocratic power, making his personal influence prevail in all branches of the Government. He is known to be very ambitious and desirous of increasing his power. It is even said, although this is not confirmed at the State Department, that he is struggling to unite Venezuela, Colombia, and Ecuador into one nation, over which he wishes to be the supreme ruler. It is said that a large portion of his support comes from those who hone for reward at his hands in case he succeeds in overthrowing the Governments of Colombia and Ecuador and forming a union of these three nations.

The Dawes Commission is now in the Creek Nation arranging to carry out the agreement. Chief John and his companions represent some of the Creeks who are opposed to the agreement. In answer to his protest the Acting Secretary of the interior stated that it was obligatory on the part of the Department to execute the laws and that the agreement entered into between the United States and the Creek Nation by which the treaty of 1852 was amended must be enforced, and the Department was powerless to change the decree.

The Creeks have recently been included.

Department was powerless to change the decree.

The Crocks have recently been inclined to be a little rebellious. When the delegation was leaving Chief John remarked that the Crocks wanted to do right, but they wanted their rights under the treaty of 1822. Mr. Ryan told Chief John that his rights were defined in the laws of the United States and agreements or treaties made by the Crock Nation with the United States, and that he was expected to obey these laws and agreements or treaties. "If you want to do right," added the Acting Secretary, "that is what you will do."
